Executive MBA Commencement

Faculty Speaker Thomas C. Kinnear

Thomas C. Kinnear is the Eugene Applebaum Professor of Entrepreneurial Studies, Executive Director of the Samuel Zell and Robert H. Lurie Institute for Entrepreneurial Studies, and Professor of Marketing at the Ross School of Business. He was former Senior Associate Dean of the Business School and former Vice President for Development and Executive Officer for the University. He led the $1.4 billion fundraising campaign for the University in the 1990s. He holds undergraduate and LL.D. (honoris causa) degrees from Queen's University at Kingston, Ontario, an MBA from Harvard University, and a Ph.D. in Business Administration from the University of Michigan.

Professor Kinnear is former editor of the Journal of Marketing and founding editor of the Journal of Public Policy & Marketing. He is co-author of numerous journal articles and multiple editions of several books.

He is currently Chair and President of the Michigan Venture Fund, a $200 million venture capital fund of funds, and serves as fund investment advisor and limited partner to three Venture Capital Funds. He is past-Chair of the Board for the American Marketing Association. He also serves on the Board of Directors of several companies and nonprofit organizations.
